

LITHICS 26 (for 2005)

CONTENTS

Editorial	Lynne Bevan	3
Papers
John Wymer: An Appreciation	J. McNabb	4
Ceremonial and domestic flint arrowheads	R. Devaney	9
Testing the functional utility of handaxe symmetry: fallow deer butchery with replica handaxes	A.J. Machin, R. Hosfield & S.J. Mithen	23
The north-west Wales lithic scatters report	G.H. Smith	38
Glentagart, South Lanarkshire — discussion of a Scottish chert assemblage and its associated technology	T.B. Ballin & M. Johnson	57
The Portable Antiquities Scheme, mental health and lithics — a fieldwalker's experience	R. Couper	87
New finds of Palaeolithic handaxes from Lincolnshire	T. William Bee	90
Letters & Notes
John Wymer Bursary	Lithic Studies Society Committee	101
A visit to Spiennes Flint Mines, Belgium	Chris Butler	102
Giant handaxes from Cuxton: errata and clarification	Francis Wenban-Smith	105
A green barbed and tanged arrowhead from Oxfordshire	Rebecca Devaney	106
Minutes & Finances
Minutes of the Annual General Meeting (2005)		107
Treasurer's Statement of Accounts (2004/5)		110